Use of the word "card" in its singular form may also refer to the plural. The word "card" also means your KFCU credit card and duplicates of said card. The word "account" means your KFCU credit card revolving credit account with Keesler Federal Credit Union (the "Credit Union").

1. You have applied for a line of credit that you can use from time to time and which may be replenished by payment on amounts previously drawn.
2. This Agreement establishes your request for the issuance of a credit card. The credit limit approved shall be determined by the Credit Union, and this credit limit will be drawn upon as you utilize an issued credit card.
3. A FINANCE CHARGE (interest) will be charged on any outstanding balances that are not repaid within the allowable 25-day grace period established by the Credit Union. The Balance Calculation Method used by the Credit Union is the "average daily balance" method including current transactions".
4. Variable Rate Information: Your APR may increase or decrease. The Interest Rate may change quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October, based on the U.S. Prime Rate as published in the Wall Street Journal. The Margin is determined based on an evaluation of each Member's credit history. The Margin will range from 0% to 12% based on product type and credit history.
5. Other charges may also be assessed against your account as follows:
 - a) A late charge of up to $25.00 will be assessed against your account when the minimum monthly payment as indicated on your account statement is not paid within 10 days after the due date.

 - The following fees would apply for convenience checks:

8. You promise to pay any and all charges by you or any person whom you authorized to use the credit card issued to you.
9. You also agree to pay all costs incurred by the Credit Union in collecting your indebtedness or in enforcing this Agreement, including attorney's fees or 10% of the unpaid balance or such greater amount as may be reasonable and just, and also those costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred in appellate proceedings.
10. You understand and agree that the Credit Union has the authority to impress and enforce a statutory lien on all present and future shares in your name to the extent of that portion of the loan balance which may be in default, including cost of collection and reasonable attorney's fees. Further you hereby expressly agree and consent that the Credit Union may apply such shares in payment of that portion of the loan balance which may be in default under this Agreement which may include a FINANCE CHARGE, including other charges, and that such application may be pursuant to such a pledge or as a right of offset, and can be exercised without further notice to you. If you have any loans with the Credit Union, or take out other loans in the future, collateral securing those loans will also secure your obligation under this Agreement. However, unless you expressly agree otherwise, your primary dwelling will not secure your obligation under this Agreement even if the Credit Union has or later acquires a mortgage on the dwelling.

11. As a holder of a credit card, you understand that you can repay any outstanding balance prior to maturity in whole or part at your option without penalty. If Promotional Balance(s) exists, we may allocate all of the minimum monthly payments to the promotional balance(s) before the non-promotional balance(s).

12. Foreign transactions conducted in a foreign currency will be converted to a U.S. dollar amount. Currently, the conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars for such a transaction generally will be either the government mandated rate or a wholesale rate for the processing cycle in which the transaction is processed, increased by an adjustment factor established from time to time. The currency conversion rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date.

13. The Credit Union is not responsible for the refusal or failure of any merchant, bank or automated equipment to honor or accept your credit card. Except as indicated in the Billing Rights Summary on Page 7, the Credit Union is not responsible for any goods or services you purchase with your credit card and you must resolve all disputes directly with the merchant.

14. You authorize the Credit Union to pay for your account, all items reflecting purchases or cash advances made with your credit card in spite of the absence of your signature on a draft or the lack of your presentation of the credit card. By giving your credit card to someone else, you authorize all purchases and cash advances made by the person until you have notified us that further transactions are unauthorized.

15. Prior to your use of the credit card that may be issued, you agree to comply with all of the terms and conditions established by the Credit Union's Board of Directors pertaining to the use of such credit card. In the event you do not wish to comply with the foregoing terms and conditions for any reason, you may terminate this Agreement and return the credit card to the Credit Union.

16. You acknowledge and agree that the Credit Union may terminate this Agreement under the following conditions:

- (a) upon adverse reevaluation of your creditworthiness,
- (b) upon your failure to satisfy the terms of this agreement, or
- (c) at your option or at the Credit Union's option if it has a good cause.

17. If your line of credit is terminated by the Credit Union, you shall receive written notice of such termination; however, you understand and acknowledge that such termination shall not affect your obligation to pay any outstanding balance.

18. You understand that the Credit Union's Board of Directors may require that your loan file be reviewed periodically, and you hereby give your permission and authorize the Credit Union to investigate and reassess your creditworthiness.

19. You understand that the Credit Union may require reverification and approval if: (a) the credit limit is increased or (b) the terms of payment are extended beyond the terms of the original Agreement.

20. You fully understand, acknowledge and agree that if any loans become delinquent or past due, your credit card shall be revoked unless the Credit Union determines that extenuating circumstances have contributed to the delinquency. Under such circumstances, the Credit Union may approve your continued use of the credit card.

24. Under the Military Lending Act, the following statement applies to covered borrowers:

Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums, fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transactions; and any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

FINANCE CHARGE CALCULATION METHODS

The FINANCE CHARGE Calculation Method applicable to your account for Cash Advances and Credit Purchases of Goods and Services that you obtain through the use of your credit card is specified below:

METHOD F- To avoid incurring additional FINANCE CHARGE on the balance of Cash Advances (and Credit Purchases, if this Method F is specified as applicable to Credit Purchases) reflected on your statement on or before the Payment Due Date the FINANCE CHARGES for a billing cycle are computed by applying the monthly Periodic Rate to the Average Daily Balance of Cash Advances (and, if applicable Credit Purchases), which is determined by dividing the sum of the Daily Balances during the billing cycle by the number of days in the cycle, plus applicable Cash Advance Fees. Each daily balance of Cash Advances (and if applicable, Credit Purchases) is determined by adding to the Previous Balance of Cash Advances (and, if applicable, Credit Purchases), any new Cash Advances as of the transaction date or the first day of the billing cycle in which posted, whichever is later, (and, if applicable, any Credit Purchases as posted) and subtracting any payments as received and credits as posted to your account, but excluding any unpaid FINANCE CHARGE.

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60-days after we sent the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but by doing so will not preserve your rights.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE:

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill is correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you questioned, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date it is due. If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.
